1. King Paul has asked General Alexander Papagos to submit a list of ministerial candidates for a government to be headed by Papagos in the near future.
2. The list allegedly includes P. Kanellopoulos for Foreign Affairs, P. Voulgaris for Navy, S. Markozinis for Justice, General A. Merenditis for War, G. Karamanlis and Admiral A. Sakellariou for unspecified posts. It is not known if these persons are willing to participate.
3. Parliament is to be dissolved if the new government fails to obtain a vote of confidence.

(Washington Comment: It is presumed that such a government would be resorted to only in the event an impasse were reached by the present coalition parties. It is not clear whether para. 3 refers to the present government or the proposed Papagos Government. Parliament is not scheduled to convene until February.)
